Re: Bountiful Utah Heights Stake / Notice of Decision of Disciplinary Council

Dear Brother Naegle:

As a result of the disciplinary council that was conducted in your behalf on May 12, 2016, you have been excommunicated from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints for apostasy. Understanding the weightiness of the matter, the council was conducted with the utmost respect, solemnity and love.

A person who is excommunicated does not enjoy any of the privileges of Church Membership. You may not wear the temple garment or pay tithes and offerings. You are encouraged to attend public church meetings (if your conduct is orderly), but you may not give a talk, offer a public prayer, partake of the sacrament, or participate in the sustaining of Church officers.

If you wish, you may submit a written appeal to me within thirty days of this date, which will be forwarded to the First Presidency for their consideration. Any appeal should specify the alleged errors or unfairness in the procedure or decision.

Louis, we love you and it is our hope and prayer that you will one day return with full purpose of heart. I will always be willing to help you to that end.

Sincerely,

Daniel P. Lake
